

The Council of Al-Qasim Green University honored Professors during its fifth open session

The Council of Al-Qasim Green University honored a distinguished group of faculty members who have recently been promoted to the rank of Professor, during its fifth open session. This recognition reflects the university's commitment to celebrating academic excellence and supporting scholarly achievement.

Honored Professors are: Professor Dr. Imad Abd Al-Jabbar Ali Juma from the College of Agriculture, who attained the rank of Professor in Animal Production / Poultry Physiology. From the College of Education, Professor Dr. Amal Sabah Radam Al-Tai professor in Arabic Language Methods. Additionally, Professor Dr. Sabrin Latif from the College of Engineering achieved the rank in Civil Engineering / Environmental Engineering.

This recognition comes in acknowledgment of their successful fulfillment of academic promotion requirements and in appreciation of their outstanding contributions to advancing education and scientific research at the university